1.4 Reasons for Reviewing Curriculum of Primary Education

In 2019, the Revolutionary Government of Zanzibar reviewed the Pre-Primary and Primary Education Curriculum. The aim was to make it relevant to the development of Science and Technology, labour market competition and global economic changes, as stated in various Government documents, including Zanzibar Policy of Education. The policy focuses on enhancing the quality and structure of education so as to have good link starting from Pre-Primary, Primary to Secondary, in order to suit peoples' expectations within the society. Among the proposed changes is to have seven (7) years of primary education instead of six (6) years that was being practiced before.

1.5 Importance of English Language Subject

English is the second official language, following Kiswahili which is also the national language. It is the main medium of instruction at post primary education and training. Furthermore, it is the channel for local and international commerce, trade and industry. English is also one of the key means of communication, local and international understanding, negotiations and agreements. In Zanzibar, it is one of the major tools for promoting tourism.

In view of those roles, it becomes necessary to teach/learn English effectively for communicative purposes. To achieve this, the functional or communicative approach in teaching/learning English shall be maintained (instead of the grammar-based approach). The communicative approach offers pupils opportunities for creative and meaningful learning.

1.6 General Learning Outcomes

After the learners have completed the English language in the lower primary Education, he/she should demonstrate the following competences:

- Communicate appropriately in English orally in a range of social situations
- Communicate basic ideas through the written medium.
- Read narrative texts with understanding.
- Read basic descriptive and expository texts.
- Use English for a range of basic communicative purposes.

2.0 STRUCTURE OF THE SYLLABUS

This syllabus consists of two main sections: the preliminary pages and the teaching and learning tables/matrix.

2.1 Preliminary Pages

This section consists of the introduction of the syllabus, Zanzibar Philosophy of Education, the overall goals of education in Zanzibar, general objectives of Zanzibar Primary Education, reasons for reviewing Curriculum of Primary Education and importance of English Language Subject. Also, there are the general learning outcomes of English Language for Standards I-III. Other aspects are: explanations on items from the syllabus matrix as well as the scope and sequence of the topics therein.

2.2 Teaching and Learning Tables/Matrix

This section shows the learning procedures clarified in the three tables which carries the content of learning from Standard I-III. Each table starts with the list of general learning outcomes for the specific class. After the general learning outcomes, follows the table of matrix which consists of topics, specific learning outcomes, learning techniques, learning resources, assessment, and number of periods for each subtopic. The following are explanations for each item from the teaching and learning tables/matrix.

2.2.1 Topics

The topics focus on the scope of teaching and learning of the specific learning area.

2.2.2 Specific Learning Outcomes

Each subtopic shows specific learning outcomes. Those learning outcomes describe knowledge, skills, and attitude that each learner is supposed to gain from the subtopic. Specific learning outcomes are used in assessment that demonstrates indicators of the competence. Normally, pupil begins to show some indicators while learning. So, each learner is supposed to attain the mentioned specific learning outcomes.

2.2.3 Learning Techniques

This column consists of interactive learning techniques to be used in learning the topics in this subject. The learning techniques are questions and answers, brainstorming, games, songs, gallery walk, demonstration, role play and practical works. These are proposed methods that seemed to motivate the pupils' participation in learning. The teacher is advised to use other interactive techniques which might be appropriate according to their teaching environment.

2.2.4 Learning Resources

Learning resources relate to learning techniques, specific learning outcomes, subtopic and the requirements of each subtopic. However, the listed resources are the proposed samples, the teacher is advised to be creative in improvising resources from real environment or local raw materials. Also, teacher should cooperate with the learners to create and design learning resources by using local raw materials available in their environment.

2.2.5 Assessment

In this column, assessment techniques and tools are suggested to assess if the learners achieve the intended specific learning outcomes of the targeted topic. Assessment should be done daily, weekly, monthly, at the end of the term, and year. Teacher is insisted to assess each learner's progress using various techniques. Those techniques are such as self-assessment, observation, portfolio, checklist, questions and answers and exercises. While using those techniques, it is better for a teacher to focus on the proposed techniques and tools of assessment addressed in the syllabus and consider needs of every pupil.

2.2.6 Periods

This column shows the estimated number of periods for teaching a given topic. They are calculated on the basis of the number of days in the academic year (210) divided by the number of teaching days per week and multiplied by the number of periods per week. The total number of periods is divided by the number of sub-topics in the syllabus to get the average number of periods per sub-topic. However, the teacher may slightly adjust the estimated number of periods for a given topic or sub-topic depending on the needs of his/her class.

The English subject has been allocated six (6) periods per week for standard I and II and five (5) periods for standard III. From Monday to Thursday, during the morning shift, the duration of each period shall be 40 minutes. It shall be 35 minutes in the afternoon shift. On Fridays the duration of each period shall be 30 minutes only. The allocated time should be utilized fully. Lost instructional time should be compensated through the school's local arrangements.

2.3 Selection of Topics

Topics in this syllabus are based on the four basic language skills that need to be developed, namely; listening skills, speaking skills, reading skills and writing skills. Many topics run through all the three classes while others are taught in some classes. However, their corresponding sub-topics are arranged in such a way that knowledge and skills acquired at a given level form the basis for learning other aspects of the given topic at the next level. The following table shows the suggested topics that are in this syllabus.
